

The World is Watching...

2014 IVCI Gold Medalist Jinjoo Cho to perform at Carnegie Hall

Jinjoo Cho will be the featured soloist with the New York String Orchestra on Monday, December 28, 2015, at 8:00 PM at Carnegie Hall.

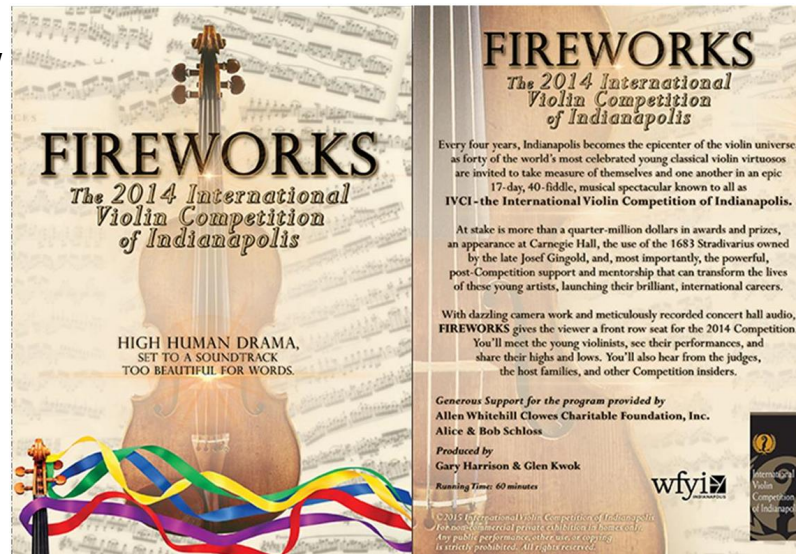

Jinjoo will join the orchestra, under the direction of IVCI Jury President Jaime Laredo, to perform Tchaikovsky's Violin Concerto, one of his most performed works. The program also features Barber's Adagio for Strings and Schubert's String Quartet in D minor, D. 810, "Death and the Maiden."

Tickets for the concert range between $15 and $65 and can be purchased online by clicking here, or by calling CarnegieCharge at 212-247-7800.

"Fireworks" DVD Now Available!

"Fireworks," the DVD documentary of the 2014 International Violin Competition of Indianapolis, is now available for purchase! Featuring dazzling camera work and meticulously recorded concert hall audio, you will enjoy a front row seat for the Ninth Quadrennial Competition. You will meet the young violinists, see and hear their performances, and share their highs and lows. You will also hear from the jury members, host families, and other Competition insiders.

Generous support for this project was provided by the Allen Whitehill Clowes Charitable Foundation, Inc., and Alice and Bob Schloss.

Your Support Makes an Impact

The 10th Quadrennial has begun. For this cycle several projects are being planned to commemorate the work of "The Indianapolis" and its impact on the field of the violin.

Add your tax-deductible gift to the IVCI. Make a donation now or make a 4-year pledge of support* for this historic Competition cycle.

Help showcase "The Indianapolis" to the world. Make your contribution today.

*For details, contact Mary Jane Sorbera at 317-637-4574 or maryjane@violin.org.